

Syrah

SICILIA DOC

This varietal is of middle eastern origin and gives its best from the terrain of Sicily, thanks to the intense sunlight and uniqueness of the soil.

Production area

The grapes are cultivated at Sambuca di Sicilia, in the province of Agrigento, and also in Acate in the province of Ragusa. At Sambuca di Sicilia, it produces a wine that is more mature and structured, at Acate, the wine is more delicate and fruitier. The type of farming used is "Espalier", with an average density of planting where there are 4500 plants per 2.5 Acres.

Grapes Syrah

Characteristics

Colour: bright ruby red.

Bouquet: warm, persuasive, featuring spicy notes of black pepper and balsamic hints of thyme over wild berries.

Flavour: a velvety and pleasant tannic sensation for a well-balanced wine.

Pairings: it pairs well with cold cuts, steaks cooled in irons, fame, smoked cheese, and herbed cheese. It is also interesting with flavourful seafood dishes such as seared swordfish and rosemary.
